

Thursday, August 7, 1958

Agnes Swain Jones

DANIELS, Wasatch County—Mrs. Agnes S. Swain Jones, 76, died Monday night at the home of a daughter, Mrs. William E. (Florence) Gibson, Midway, after a long illness.

Born Sept. 11, 1881, in Salt Lake City, a daughter of Robert H. and Sophia Johnson Swain. Married to Thomas H. Jones, Nov. 25, 1903, in Daniels. Lived in Park City and Daniels.

Mrs. Jones
Member of Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints.

Survivors: husband; sons and daughters, Mrs. Gibson; Horace T. Jones, Sandy; Lester M. Heber; Mrs. Charles H. (Marjorie) Wallar, Ballentine, Mont.; a sister, Mrs. Maud Bell, Daniels; a brother, Eli Swain, Phoenix, Ariz.; a half brother, Emunal Swain, Seattle, Wash.

Funeral Saturday, 1 p.m., Daniels Ward chapel; friends call family residence Friday night and Saturday prior to services. Burial Heber Cemetery.

Thomas H. Jones

HEBER CITY—Thomas H. Jones,

32, died in a Salt Lake hospital Saturday, 10:30 p.m., of causes incident to age.

Born Feb. 24, 1879, Uinta, Weber County, to John P. and Margaret Jones. Married Agnes Swain, Nov. 25, 1903, Daniel, Wasatch County. She died in 1958. Daniels resident 46 years, farmer stockman. Heber City resident since 1958. Elder, Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints.

Mr. Jones
Survivors: sons, daughters, Mrs. William E. (Florence) Gibson, Midway; Horace T. Sandy; Lester M. Heber City; Mrs. Charles H. (Marjorie) Wallar, Ballantine, Mont.; 16 grandchildren; 16 great-grandchildren.

Funeral Tuesday, 2 p.m., Olpin Mortuary, Heber City, where friends may call Monday, 7-9 p.m. Tuesday prior to services. Burial to Heber City Cemetery.

Monday, September 4, 1961